Celebrating 50 years

The Winery Beginnings

In 1974, Mr. C planted the first two acres of vines atop a picturesque hill in Fairport, New York, naming it “Casa Larga,” after his grandparents’ vineyards in Italy.

A piece of Italy in the heart of Monroe County, Casa Larga embodied Mr. C’s dream, serving as a symbol of his dedication to the preservation of his Italian heritage. Passion, patience and tenderness were his gifts to the vines and the wines they produced.

It takes about four years for vines to mature enough to produce good wine-quality fruit. The first harvest came in 1978, producing Casa Larga’s first vintage, along with three awards at the New York State Wine Competition. Estate

wine, food & family*

Established in 1974

White (currently Pallido) and Estate Red (currently Tramonto) were two of the first wines produced. They earned silver and gold medals in the first competition in which they were entered.

Mr. C's hobby matured into a larger business, and Casa Larga became the 21st licensed winery in New York State. Casa Larga had now entered the golden era of New York State winemaking, becoming an icon, as well as a sparkling jewel of the Finger Lakes and Rochester regions.

For Ann and Andrew, life revolved around wine, food, and family. There was always room for one more at the dinner table and the food, of course, was delicious and abundant. They gave us our old-world approach to making wine and doing business. We are proud to continue sharing their passion for family, fine wines and giving thanks –and we are delighted to count you as part of the Casa Larga family. Salute to 50 years of producing award-winning wines!
